Good News Stories

I attended a call in Rolvenden High Street to a road traffic collision involving 2 vehicles, one of which was parked. The driver of the other vehicle failed the roadside breath test, and was arrested. The female provided a reading of 50 at Folkestone police station. The female was charged and bailed to attend court where she attended recently and was given a 14-month driving ban.

Good News Stories

In Bethersden I stopped a vehicle due to suspicion of drink driving. Male driver failed roadside breath test, also had no insurance or driving licence. Male was arrested for the offences and was bailed pending blood result. He is due to return to Police Station once result is received.

I received information regarding an abandoned vehicle in Great Chart. Upon conducting enquires, there was no registered Keeper and no insurance and no tax. Vehicle was seized and due to having no registered keeper, vehicle will likely be crushed.

On the weekend of the 13th October, Ashford Neighbourhood task force I attended a call to a theft in progress. Suspect vehicle was located, and stolen items recovered, and a search was also conducted at the home address and further believed to be stolen items were also found and these were seized. The suspects were conveyed to Folkestone custody for interview. Awaiting update of outcome.
